Doing Divorce Differently

Engaged couples hire wedding planners, spending thousands of dollars to prepare for just one day in their life, the day they are married. But often they don't make the same effort and preparation when faced with Divorce.

Divorce will have an impact on you and your family for the remainder of your life. Planning and preparation will help to minimize the negative impact, smooth out the rough spots and provide you with the tools needed to move on and past your current relationship. Hiring a Certified Divorce Coach could be the single most important and cost effective decision you make when faced with divorce.

A Certified Divorce Coach is your strategic thinking partner; a trained professional who will help to guide you through the personal decisions necessary to end your marriage. The Coaches at Divorce Response Team (DRT) are equipped to prepare you for each stage of your divorce; before during and after. DRT's Coaches primary goal will enable you to work efficiently and effectively with your attorney or mediator. We strongly recommend that you are represented by legal counsel; we do not provide a legal service.

It's easy to work with us! All sessions are conducted virtually, whether meeting over video conferencing or over the phone. Choose one of our coaches from the "Meet the Team" tab, schedule an appointment online to fit your schedule, it's easy, convenient and we'll even send you a reminder. Need more info on our Coaches email info@divorceresponseteam.com and we will work with you to select the perfect Coach for your situation.

At Divorce Response Team we believe in "Doing Divorce Differently"; our primary goal is for you to be informed, organized and productive when working with legal counsel. You know the old saying, "time is money", and with legal fees anywhere from $200 to $800 an hour, preparation translates to "saving money"!

As important as saving money, the DRT Certified Divorce Coaches assist in many other areas; together with their clients, they help organizing their thoughts, wants and needs. We work with you on many aspects; co-parenting plans, visitation and maintaining control of your life to name a few, and are focused on working with YOU to achieve the best possible outcome for you and your family.
